Fall Semi-Annual Meeting

SOME THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT IN BR-KC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

By Gregg Boll, Director of Missions

Rather than focus on one event or subject and ask you to read a lengthy article, I'm doing something differently this month. I'm going to share several newsworthy items, and you can inquire with us further if they have value to you and your church's mission.

Worship Leader's Workshop on August 26th at The Church At Three Trails from 9am-2pm with lunch catered: The greatest challenge churches face is providing quality worship each Sunday or finding worship leaders. We recognize that worship is bigger than music and this conference will address all aspects of worship including the theology of worship, music selection and instrumentation/delivery, the worship leader/platform presence, and the best audio/visual practices/equipment. This workshop is for current worship leaders, potential future worship leaders, and pastors, who are the ultimate worship leaders of their church. Watch for emails and texts from us with the details and registration info.

Disciple-Making Culture Cohort to begin this fall led by pastor Jason Allen.....
